

Randy Long's Via De Cristo pilgrimage began just a few years ago in 2019. His place of worship is the Hebron Lutheran Church located in Northern Kentucky. Randy's occupation for the past 34 years has been as a Professional Land Surveyor. He is single and has no children. Reading has become his favorite pastime, which mostly includes Christian novels and literature written by C.S. Lewis and George MacDonald. He also enjoys leading Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University Courses.

Randy's favorite Bible Verse Romans 8:28 We know, declares Paul, that God works all things together for good for those who love God and are called according to God's purpose.
